Marshall Field's® & company

marshall field's & shopping

As the second largest retail department store in the world, Marshall Field's attracts people from all over. They come to discover the best and most exclusive brands, and there are thousands to choose from. You'll find all your favorites, but other stores can't come close to offering everything we do in one place:

- Over 800,000 square feet of retail space with brand names from Frango® to Marc Jacobs
- A 16,000-square-foot shoe department carrying Enzo, Jimmy Choo and more
- Over 600 patterns of crystal and china like Waterford and Vera Wang
- A newly renovated 26,000-square-foot Beauty department
- Our exclusive Green Shop featuring selections of unique Chicago and Marshall Field's branded gifts

marshall field's & dining

Whether you're searching for a formal dinner, a quick lunch, afternoon tea or someplace to meet for a drink, Marshall Field's is the place. You have your choice of three restaurants, two food courts, two juice bars, Australian Homemade Premium Ice Cream and two Starbucks coffee bars.

Our Walnut Room is more than a restaurant; it's been a Chicago institution for generations. Opened in 1907, it's one of the oldest restaurants in the city.

marshall field's & history & architecture

Our State Street store was designated a National Historic Landmark in 1979 for both its beauty and historical significance.

Our 7th floor Archive brings the history of Marshall Field's to life. An extensive collection of items are on display, including Norman Rockwell's famous painting of our Great Clock that appeared on the cover of The Saturday Evening Post on November 3, 1945.

As you explore the store, keep your eyes open for such architectural wonders as:

- The Great Clocks (State & Washington and State & Randolph)
- Great Granite Pillars (State Street entrance)
- The Tiffany Ceiling (5th floor)
- The Burnham Fountain (1st floor)

Learn more about the historical and architectural significance of the store by taking a free Audio Tour narrated by Chicago native, Bill Kurtis. Pick up your headset in the 7th Floor Visitor Center.

marshall field's & special events

Many of our events have become cherished traditions; the people of Chicago and visitors often plan their entire trip around these celebrations. Whenever you're here, don't be surprised to find yourself in the middle of something amazing.

FLOWER SHOW (March–April) – For 14 days you'll be surrounded by over one million plants and cut flowers in more than 4,000 varieties.

MARSHALL FIELD'S FLEA MARKET (July) – Three days to discover rare finds from European flea markets, selected by Marshall Field's buyers and displayed in glamorous room settings.

GLAMORAMA® (August) – We pull out all the stops and put on a world-class fashion extravaganza for charity featuring the newest looks from celebrated designers.

HOLIDAY (November–December) – For generations Chicagoans have brought their families to see the entire store decked out for the holidays. Especially our 45-foot Great Tree decorated with over 1,200 themed ornaments and 25,000 dazzling lights and the 13 animated windows on State Street.

marshall field's & you

Please let us know how else we can make your visit memorable.

Visit the Field's Express desk in the Atrium on the 1st floor or, if you're from out of town, visit our staffed Visitor Center on the 7th floor for on-site services and information.

We offer complimentary services such as coat, luggage and package check. There are also complimentary guided and self-guided historic, architectural, trend house and special event seasonal tours.

Virtually all our products are available online. So visit the ultimate department store at the ultimate Web site: fields.com/statestreet.
